Death of Mr. Toliver Bolt.

Mr. Toliver Bolt died at his home in Centerville Township last Friday night after an illness of some duration. He had reached the advanced age of 70 years, a long period of faithful, upright living as a splendid Christian gentleman.

Mr. Bolt was born in Laurens County, Georgia, and was yet a boy his father, Mr. Asa Bolt, moved to this County. He was one of nine sons, all of whom served with credit and distinction in the Confederate Army. Mr. Bolt himself enlisted in Company G, 2nd South Carolina Regiment, at the outbreak of the war and served the entire four years. He was with Lee at the surrender at Appomattox.

Mr. Bolt is survived by three brothers and two sisters, as follows: Messrs. William, Abraham and Oliver Bolt, and Mrs. Lizzie Hollins and Mrs. Caroline Garrison. Early in life Mr. Bolt was married to Miss Nancy M. Pritchard. Eight children were born to them, who with their mother are left to cherish the memory of a devoted husband and father. The children are: Messrs. John A., A. M., W. L., J. E., C. Frank and T. H. Bolt, and Mrs. C. S. Gray and Mrs. Walter Moorehead. Besides the above named children there are surviving 47 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

The funeral services over the body were held at Prospect Church Sunday afternoon, Rev. W. B. Hawkins officiating. Mr. Bolt had been a member of this Church for 45 years. A large crowd of sorrowing friends and relatives was present to pay the last sad respects to the deceased.

Mr. Bolt was one of the best citizens of the County, an upright, consecrated Christian gentleman, and in their bereavement the family will have the sympathy of a wide circle of friends.

Death of Mrs. Nancy L. Moore.

The Westminster correspondent of the Keowee Courier says: "Mrs. Nancy L. Moore, wife of William H. Moore, died at her home in Westminster on Wednesday, October 28, 1903, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon from cancer and paralysis. Prior to her marriage she was Miss Elgin, a daughter of Thompson Elgin, deceased, who resided in Anderson County. Mrs. Moore was in her 59th year, having been born May 22, 1845. She was a member of the Baptist Church for a number of years and had raised in Christian faithfulness three sons and four daughters. Besides her husband she leaves three sisters, one brother and ten grandchildren. The names of her children are John, Clayton and Thornton Moore, Mrs. W. D. Wilson, of this County, Mrs. W. S. Miller, of Mount Airy, Ga., Misses Emma and Luna Moore. All the children were with her when she died except John and Mrs. Wilson. She was a great sufferer, but bore the pain with fortitude and resignation. For several days her death was anxiously expected and two of her sisters, Mrs. John H. Stone and Mrs. Howell, were constantly at her bedside. Her only brother, Washington Elgin, resides in Texas. Mrs. Moore was a woman of many noble traits of character and leaves many friends in this section who deeply sympathize with the husband and family in their sore bereavement. At the conclusion of the funeral services conducted from the Baptist Church by her pastor, Rev. J. A. Moore, on Thursday afternoon the remains were laid to rest in the town cemetery. The deceased has many friends and relatives in this County who will long cherish her memory."

A Marriage at Belton.

In the spacious parlor of Mr. J. E. Horton's lovely home was solemnized on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 4, 1903, the prettiest marriage that has taken place in Belton for quite a lengthy season, when his niece, Miss Hattie Wilson and Mr. Elbert N. Whitmore took the vows that united the lives of these whose hearts had long beaten in unison. The reception room, hall and parlor were skillfully decorated in all the gorgeous and varying shades of autumn woodland and but for the sheltering security from the gentle raindrops could have almost fancied themselves in the midst of a primeval forest, so true for nature had the artist's hands fashioned it, while the sentimental instincts of the poetic dreamer could have easily mistaken the merry voices and rippling laughter for the warbling notes of the gay and happy songsters. At 2 o'clock the bride and groom were lured, when Misses Mamie Whitmer and Mary Horton entered, followed by the bride and groom, who stopped beneath a mammoth bower of snow-white chrysanthemums, where the Rev. Mr. McGee, in fitting words, pronounced the sacred obligations of the marriage ceremony.

The bride was becomingly attired in a traveling suit of blue and in all her beauty she never looked one-half so bewitching. They left immediately on the afternoon train for Caliseche, the home of the groom, where they will reside. The plurality of beautiful and useful presents attested in an appreciable manner the high esteem in which these young people are held.

In the removal of Miss Wilson Belton has suffered the loss of one of her fairest and most accomplished daughters. Mr. Whitmore is a young man possessed of marked business ability. In parties who are joyous in the prospect that their future home will be "as much a paradise as belongs to earth."

Union Meeting.

The Union Meeting of the Third Union, Saluda Association, will meet with Lebanon Baptist Church on Saturday before the 5th Sunday in November, at ten o'clock a. m. The following is the program:

10.30 a. m.—Introductory sermon, Rev. W. B. Hawkins. Alternate, Rev. H. C. Martin.

11.45 a. m.—Discussion of the following query: To what extent are the Churches responsible for the inconsistent walk of Church members; and what should be done with Church members who persistently indulge in disorderly conduct. Opened by Wm. Brown, followed by T. P. Lide and H. C. Martin, and then thrown open for general discussion.

Recess for one hour and thirty minutes for dinner.

1.30 p. m.—Discussion of the following query: Farmman, University, her needs. Her endowment, her future and the duty of the denomination to her. J. D. Chapman, J. M. Paget and R. M. Barrie, in the order named. Adjourn at measure.

Sunday a. m.—Introductory sermon, by Rev. T. P. Lide. Alternate, Rev. J. B. Heron.

J. W. Quattlebaum, Chm.

Denver Dots.

Denver High School commenced Monday with Prof. W. E. Chapman as Principal and Miss Rosa Willis, of Greenville, as Assistant. Prof. Chapman taught the last session and gave general satisfaction. Miss Willis has never taught here before but comes highly recommended, both as a teacher and a charming lady. A full attendance of pupils is expected.

Mr. Wm. Lee, of Long Creek S. C., visited his brother, J. W. Lee, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Garrison had a pleasant trip to Seneca and Walhalla last week visiting relatives.

Mr. John Garrison has gone to Spartanburg on some pleasant business, we guess.

Mr. John Rice has a very sick baby. We have had several heavy frosts with some ice. Farmers say they never saw cotton as completely killed as it was in this section by the first frost on the 23d. A big frost at that time would have been a benefit to cotton, but such a freeze cut it off entirely. The cutting short of the cotton crop, and consequently the picking, leaves many of the lower class without means, so we may expect thieves to be plentiful.

Last Tuesday night, about 9 p. m., Ernest Browne went out to the barn to see how everything was faring before retiring. On opening the door he found a negro lying down, apparently asleep. He closed the door softly and ran back to the house to get his pistol, but before he got many steps the negro jumped out and ran off at full speed. His tracks were readily found next morning, but could not be traced by the hound that was brought, as a show of the man had fallen during the night. What the negro's purpose was can only be conjectured, but he was certainly bold to come at such an early hour.

In Memoriam.

On September 2nd, 1903, Mr. Charlie Hickman, a young man in the prime of life, died at his home near Starr, S. C. His mother, a woman loved and respected by all who knew her, stood by him in his afflictions like a ministering angel, and she was weary spirit went to God who gave it. Then, well spent in vital forces, and heart-broken, she followed his body to the silent city of the dead. And, after having seen it laid to rest, she returned to her humble home, where her frail body soon became prey to that dread disease, typhoid fever, and where she so departed this life November 2nd, 1903. Sister Sarah Hickman was a faithful member of the Methodist Church at Starr. It was her privilege to talk with her only a few hours before her demise. She said: "I understand the blessed plan of salvation and I am trusting in Jesus." Her mind was clear, her spirit was calm, as if anchored in the sea of heavenly rest. We believe she has gone to that good land. Sister Hickman was 32 years of age. She leaves one son, and a host of relatives and friends. After funeral services by the writer, she was laid to rest by the side of her son at Cross Roads Church.

Prospect News.

The health of our community is very good at this writing.

It is wheat sowing time and the farmers are having a busy time around to get ready to sow. Some are breaking their ground and then sowing the wheat and harrowing it in.

There was an all-day singing at Salem last Sunday and a large crowd attended. The leaders were Professor W. W. Hall, Adolphus Bolt and G. W. McClain.

F. Bolt made a flying visit to "Wild Hog" last Sunday evening.

Sam Williams and two charming young ladies of the "Wild Hog" section, spent last Sunday at the singing.

Miss Willis, daughter of Prof. Willis, has been spending quite awhile with the family of Wm. Cann.

J. S. Neal and wife spent last Sunday with the family of T. P. Tate.

Mrs. M. L. Campbell also spent last Sunday with them.

The school at this place is very large at this time. The people are not through gathering, but it seems that they are interested more in the school than they are in their farms. They have a good teacher, Prof. Ira Giles. He is strict one and the children respect and obey him.

Tom Girard was visiting G. V. Tate Sunday.

To Support a Native Preacher.

Walhalla, November 10.—To the Baptist Churches in Beavertown Association: We desire to call especial attention of the Churches to the importance of supporting a native preacher in China. At our request, Brother E. F. Tatum, of Shanghai, has assigned Brother Dong Zung Tub, to our association. He is now engaged in evangelistic work at Shanghai. He is about twenty-five years of age and was married last spring. He has attended Dr. Bryan's Bible class three years. Bro. Tatum says that Old North Gate Pastor Woo chose him as assistant pastor, and that at this Church there are several inquirers and Brother Dong Zung Tub is anxious to help them to the truth. This brother has three preaching services per week and attends three others.

Our treasurer, J. W. Stribling, has opened an account with all churches for this special work, and we desire all the Churches that have not done so, to make a contribution and send to Bro. Stribling stating that it is for the support of a native Chinese preacher. This native preacher can be supported for one hundred dollars per year. This is a plan in our foreign missionary efforts that appeals directly to us, and in supporting this preacher we will be brought into close personal relations with Brother Dong Zung and he with us. Praying God's richest blessing upon this undertaking in the Master's name, I am,

Sincerely yours in Christ,
J. M. Sanders, Missionary.

Mammoth Holiday Issue.

The December Delinquent (Christmas Number) represents the high-water mark of beauty and utility, and possibly of circulation also. In a woman's magazine, having a first edition of more than a million copies, it contains 240 pages. To produce this mammoth edition 825 tons of paper and 40 presses working 25 days were required. In addition to exquisite color work, clever fiction and strikingly illustrated articles, the number includes a display of charming Winter fashions covering forty-two pages, letters from the foreign fashion centers and illustrated articles on the fashionable fabrics and trimmings.

It also the third installment of the Evolution of a Club Woman, the pictorial narrative of clubdom by Agnes Surbridge, and a remarkable photographic article by G. T. Brown. There are many beautiful art features, among them four pages in colors representing Babyhood, Childhood, Girlhood and Motherhood.

Townville News.

Miss Arabelle Dickson, after a pleasant stay with her sister, Mrs. Banks, at Spartanburg, has returned home.

Lottie Graham, of Anderson, spent Sunday with her father, J. F. Graham.

Mr. Walker, of Birmingham, Ga., spent last week with his daughter, Mrs. H. D. Grant.

Mr. Jack Harris, of Pendleton, and his wife, Mrs. J. C. Harris, Sunday.

Hill Ledbetter, while staying where some hands were cutting wood, one of the axes flew from the handle and struck him on his leg, inflicting a severe cut.

Born, unto Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Grant, on the 7th, a girl.

Messrs. J. R. Bruce and J. E. Campbell visited W. W. Bruce at Oakway Sunday.

Jesse Campbell has been quite sick for the past few days.

Miss Annie and Enah Compton went to Anderson last week shopping.

MOVING ON WITH GRAND STRIDES

Is what We must Do this Month.

Want to Talk a Little About Dress Goods.

We don't suppose there is a lady in Anderson County who doesn't know that we carry a very large line of Dress Goods. An important question with us is to get them to call and investigate this Stock when in the city shopping.

Not a piece of Dress Goods comes into this Store that is not selected with the utmost care. We wish to impress upon you—

How Strong our 50c Line is in Zibbellines, Chevicts, Venetians.

And in plain colors and blacks. This price Dress Goods will interest most any one that we show. Then we show a strong line at 25c.

Ladies' Wraps.

We handle a popular priced line of Wraps also, and think we show the best line of—

Ladies' Jackets,

From $2.50 to $5.00, it has ever been our good pleasure to have. We carry Ladies' Wraps at $7.50, $10, $12.50, on to $20.00.

A very popular priced line of Ladies' Ready-to-Wear Skirts.

We extend a cordial invitation to the Ladies to be sure and call. It is our delight to show you all we have in our Dry Goods and Millinery Department before you leave the Store. If we can please you we want to sell you. We verily believe if you will give us a look we will please you. We feel that this month's business must be larger than we have ever had in November. HAVE MOVED TO THEIR

New, Large Quarters!

COMPELLED to seek larger Store Rooms we are now occupying Two Large Floors, which are filled with New, Up-to-Date Merchandise, all bought for Spot Cash by shrewd buyers. We do not need to explain who we are. Your parents and grand-parents have always made headquarters with us, and we have won their full confidence. We have no old Stock to offer. We do not try to sell you one article at a loss and make it up on others, like a great many business houses do. No, we are dealing honest, and you all must come and see what enormous stocks of carefully selected—

Dry Goods, Shoes, Clothing and Millinery

Is awaiting your inspection. Inspection means buying. How often have you been tempted by some concerns to buy shoddy, but nice-looking Goods, and have found out afterwards that it did not give satisfaction? How often have you bought a good looking Shoe and found afterwards it had a pasteboard sole, and bought same over again? Why not come where you are known, where you are at home, and where you have always been suited, and where you will again be well suited?

We bought from a large Cloak manufacturer 500 high grade CLOAKS, which we will offer at such low prices that there will be no competition. You will be delighted to inspect our beautiful MILLINERY DEPARTMENT. This has become our pet department, because the very latest styles and quality of HATS sell at sight. Fancy Hats, but not fancy prices, are the quick sellers.

Do not go and look for CLOTHING elsewhere when you can find a full, large assortment of nobby Clothing at ridiculously low prices.

WE ARE THE SHOE PEOPLE because we have built up an enormous trade in good Shoes. We sell only solid leather Shoes at the very lowest prices. You can find here the very latest styles in Footwear, either for ladies, men or children. Come and examine our Shoes before you buy elsewhere. We know how to fit your feet and pocket-book, and guarantee any Shoe that goes out of our Store.

We always carry a full line of up-to-date Goods, and sell them at lower prices than any other Store in this section. Before you buy give us a call. We have many polite and well known Sales-people who are willing and ready to wait on you, and treat you like old friends.
